Life Is (Was□Will Be?) GoodIndigo Summer has everything she wants: a coveted spot on the high school dance squad, a hot boyfriend (the one and only Marcus Carter) and□her best friend, Jade, is moving back to Atlanta! But why does trouble always have to follow? Jade is suddenly getting too cozy with their good-looking history teacher. And instead of shooting hoops, Marcus is sitting in a courthouse, forced to prove his innocence for something he didn't do. Indigo is feeling the pressure□from the squad, from her friends, from her family. It's time to show everyone□and herself□that she's made of strong stuff.

Silverbrew

Book two of the Indigo Summer series. This one addresses eating disorders, teacher molestation, and drugs. Indigo, Jade, and Marcus all get their fair share of trouble. All themes are weaved nicely together. Realistic approach describing experiences from a young person's point of view.

Delirium

3.5 stars. Since this book is targeted for ages 9-12, I gave it an extra star. Simple stories that seems a little to Cosby-ish than real life I still think the target audience will get something out of it. Some of the proeses are too simple and the ending seemed rushed. Plus, the story seems a bit thin given the price tag.
